

Massachusetts Financial Literacy Summit: Financing a Postsecondary Education

Friday, March 11, 2016

Beechwood Hotel, 363 Plantation Street, Worcester MA

Massachusetts Education & Career Opportunities, Inc. (MassEdCO) invites you to its FREE spring summit in collaboration with Reach Higher Massachusetts.

Funding for this event was provided by the Lumina Foundation Strategy Labs.

Focus of Event: Massachusetts State Treasurer Deb Goldberg recently released the report from her Task Force on Financial Literacy: A Roadmap to Economic Empowerment. The summit will take up the recommendations relevant to financing a postsecondary education with the goal of equipping more students and families with better financial decision making skills.

Target Audience: Representatives from school districts, nonprofit organizations, state agencies, and local and state elected officials. (Please share this invitation with those you feel may be interested in attending.)

Event:

Registration, Continental Breakfast & Networking 8 a.m.
Opening Remarks by Treasurer Deb Goldberg 9 a.m.
Panel discussions on policies and best practices 9:30 – 11:30 a.m.

Panel 1: Dr. Clantha McCurdy, Senior Deputy Comm., Access & Student Financial Assistance, Mass. Dept. of Higher Ed.; State Sen. Michael Moore, Chair, Joint Committee on Higher Education; Paul C. Combe, President & CEO, American Student Assistance

Followed by Q & A Session

Panel 2: Julie Shields-Rutyna, Director of College Planning, Mass. Educational Financing Authority; Todd Ostrowski, math teacher, Baird Middle School, Ludlow & member, Treasurer's Task Force on Financial Literacy; Yiming Shuang, Director of Operations, Inversant;

Followed by Participant Participation Session

RSVP: To register, fill out our online registration form by Friday, February 26. Registration questions may be directed to Diane Ouellet at 508.754.6829, ext. 3028 or douellet@massedco.org.

Additional support provided by

If you would like to help MassEdCO continue its good work: <http://www.massedco.org/donate>

